Drouhin Wine Dinner
Hosted by
Laurent Drouhin

Laurent loved playing hide-and-seek in the hectare of the cellar. He emerged with a Proust's madeleine whose noble aromas are those of fermenting grapes. By regularly accompanying his father in the vineyards, Laurent also understands the importance of preserving the family heritage. « Our name must embody family values that carry a certain idea of wine », he summarizes. To him, Drouhin signifies a duty of excellence. After graduating from the Business School in Paris, he initially took on the role of sales representative in the capital. Around the year 2000, he ventured to the Caribbean before seizing the North American market. With his wife and two children, Aurore and Amaury, he settled in the New York region, from where he oversees the commercialization and marketing of all Drouhin wines with a special relationship with Dreyfus Ashby, importers of the family's wines since the 1960s. Thus, he carries the family values and his perception of wine to every corner of the globe.

Founded in Beaune in 1880, The Joseph Drouhin Domaine was assembled parcel by parcel over the years and comprises today 80 hectares (197.5 acres) of vineyards in Côte de Nuits, Côte de Beaune, Côte Chalonnaise, and Chablis. It is one of the most important domains in Burgundy, with more than two-thirds of the vineyards classified as Premier and Grand Crus. With close to 90 different appellations, Joseph Drouhin offers a fascinating array of Burgundy terroirs in all their authenticity and subtle variations.

Established in 1987, Domaine Drouhin Oregon is owned by famed Burgundy producer, Maison Joseph Drouhin. Hand-crafted by fourth-generation winemaker, Veronique Drouhin-Boss, the distinctive Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays of Domaine Drouhin are prized for their elegance, balance, and finesse, as well as their ability to age. Philippe Drouhin, Veronique's brother, is in charge of viticulture and has earned an international reputation for his work both in Burgundy and Oregon. Ninety acres of the 225-acre estate are now planted, with over 3100 vines per acre. Domaine Drouhin Oregon's landmark 4-level
