PAUL BUTLER

Paul Butler is a chartered global management accountant (CGMA) and a chartered management accountant (CIMA).

Originally from England, he worked for Hilton International Hotels and Marriott International as a regional finance director and first came to the United States as the director of marketing and financial services for Hilton Honors when Hilton's worldwide headquarters was in Beverly Hills, California.

In 2006, Paul started Newleaf Training and Development—a staff-training and leadership-development company that serves clients across the United States and around the world. Paul has served as a keynote speaker at past CMAA World Conferences and various chapters around the United States as well for the Golf Management Association of Australia.

A teacher at heart, Paul also serves as a faculty member within the business department of the Master's University in Santa Clarita, California. He lives in Valencia, California, and has been married to his wife, Gaynor, since 1994.

They have two adult children.
